_____

Academic Pronunciation Dictation 3

Link http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=TIFuczvkubk

10 Academic Words (e-i)

1. Establish

2. Estimate

3. Evidence

4. Export

5. Factor

6. Finance

7. Formula

8. Function

9. Identify

10. Income

_____

_____

Pronunciation Sentences Dictation 3

1. State and _____

_____

2. In the House, _____

_____

3. In most _____

_____

4. Other major _____

_____

5. Economists _____

_____

6. Budgetary _____

_____

7. The IMF _____

_____

8. Despite _____

_____

9. Collins was _____

_____

10. Net _____

_____

_____

Pronunciation Sentences Dictation 3 ANSWERS

1. State and federal antitrust laws allow plaintiffs to recover triple the amount of actual damages established at trial. _Reuters_ Feb 13, 2013

2. In the House, a few members have an estimated net worth that is based on negative equity, meaning their financial liabilities are greater than their assets. _New York Times_ Jan 29, 2013

3. In most instances, it comes down to re-litigating the whole case, fighting once again over the testimony and circumstantial evidence used to convict. _Time_ Feb 11, 2013

4. Other major exporting countries also prosecute companies caught bribing foreign officials to win contracts. _Reuters_ Feb 15, 2013

5. Economists said the relative strength of the local residential construction market is largely contingent on one key factor.

6. Budgetary lobbying groups are asking the state legislature to pigeonhole everything else to focus on financial issues. _Reuters_ Feb 6, 2013

7. The IMF is following old formulas based on materialism and depending on technocratic think tanks for solutions. _Reuters_ Feb 15, 2013

8. Despite this minimal deviation in temperature, the researchers found remarkable differences in cognitive functioning. _Scientific American_ Feb 12, 2013

9. Collins was subpoenaed again in 1951 and identified more than 20 colleagues as Communist sympathizers. _Salon_ Feb 15, 2013

10. Net income of $13.7 billion was virtually procumbent with $13.06 billion a year earlier on higher manufacturing costs. _Reuters_ Jan 24, 2013