

Academic Pronunciation Dictation 4

Link <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=UwOqwo0gBMI>

10 Academic Words (i-m)

1. indicate
2. individual
3. interpretation
4. involved
5. issue
6. labour
7. legal
8. legislation
9. major
10. method

Pronunciation Sentences Dictation 4

1. The data, _____

2. He _____

3. Some _____

4. Large, _____

5. A panel _____

6. Unlike some other _____

7. Justices appeared _____

8. The bonus rules _____

9. Major U.S. stock _____

10. He pointed out that _____

Pronunciation Sentences Dictation 4 ANSWERS

1. The data, coupled with other intelligence, indicated that North Korea had, in fact, successfully detonated a nuclear weapon. Slate Feb 15, 2013
2. He believes that social action is rooted in individual's rights and responsibilities. Forbes Feb 27, 2013
3. Some researchers at the meeting, while cautioning that such interpretations are necessarily speculative, say that the pair's thesis has merit. Science Magazine 27/2013
4. Large, reputable western banks have been involved in criminal scandals before, of course, but the cases have tended to be isolated. News week Mar 2, 2013
5. A panel has been established to develop a discussion of the social, psychological and biological issues surrounding gender identity. Washington Post Mar 1, 2013
6. Unlike some other countries, Japan has been remarkably effective at substituting cheap labour with capital, rather than immigrants. Economist Feb 27, 2013
7. Justices appeared perplexed, at times irritated, about what lawyers believed was the legal issue before them. Salon Feb 27, 2013
8. The bonus rules will come as part of wider legislation setting higher capital standards for banks, increasing their costs and curbing freedom to hike salaries. Reuters Feb 28, 2013
9. Major U.S. stock indexes will make another attempt at reaching all-time records, but the fitful pace that has dominated trading is likely to continue. Reuters Mar 2, 2013
10. He pointed out that established methods and respected leaders in those methods often disbelieved new notions that didn't follow their line of thought. Forbes Feb 19, 2013